SECULD IN MORE CARRILL.—The other day we noticed a narrow seeape of a city passenger car from being smashed into non-cutify by a locomotive which turning the surve on Pennyivenia avanue, mear the western Capitol gate. That day the passenger car was siruck by the cow-anther. It is engine and thrown from the track. The engineer happened to reverse the motion in time enough to spare the car and nave the lives of the passengers. This norming another narrow secape was made. The car barely ercosed the track when the engine reached the lateracetion of the two tracks.

the engine reached the intersection of the two tracks.

The lady passengers who saw the engine coming with the long train of cars, all heaved deep sighs, as if it were the last day of their lives. Several vice started for the platform. If drivers were more careful, these alarms and fears of passengers would never be exhibited. Some of the confuctors see the train, but nevertheles urge on the drivers to cross the track for the purpose of saving time since is takes a long train some time to pass, and even a minute is presions to a conductor.

Utoprax Enjoymant.—Patrick Mahoney was attrested yesterday afternoon by Officer Morries, for steeling some eigars out of one of Harvey & Co.'s express cars. The cigars were of the most valuable kind and belonged to C. Barnard, of Georgetown. Pat's imagination was "good-coaditioned." Glowing pictures were painted for the future. Pat thought about oriental luxury, and fancied that he was whilfing his Expanols funes, whilst laxify ioling on a lovely lounge like a lord, Pat's budding hepes were blighted and the jail is his Utopia, the free use and enjoyment of which was generously granted by Justice Thompson was generously granted by Justice Thompson.

ARREST OF Mas. A. W. FLATCHER.—On Tuce-ay last Major A. W. Fletcher, of this city, was restrict and committed to the Old Capitol prison, y order of the Secretary of War. Mal. Fletcher was a symmater in the army until recently, when to was dismissed the service for an alleged im-proper disposition of Government funds. Although proper disposition of dovernment trans. Actionary the cause of his committed to prison: has not been made public, it is supposed that it has something to do with his conduct while paymaster. Major Fictcher, we learn, is a relative of Daniel Webster.

Bimerino in vine Symmer.—Charles Devlin and James Wheatley, two Irish laborers, were arrested by Officers Healy and Messier for sleeping in a wagon on English Hill. They are both upwards of fifty years of age, and strange to say, though they are able to do work, they on find none to do, when the Government is daily adversing for laborers. Justice Thompson sent them to the Workhouse for sixty days.
